

VALORIE MOORE

Valorie Moore was born and raised in Alabama. She is the proud mother of freshman and Dr. Michael L. Lomax Student Success Scholar Dylan Moore. She is currently an Environmental Scientist/Manager in the greater Los Angeles, CA area. She has over 35 years of professional experience in management of Environmental programs (air, water, waste) in the aggregate, limestone, cement, gypsum, oil & gas, and waste industries. She holds a BA in Biology from Talladega College and an MS in Environmental Management from Samford University.

In addition to ensuring her sites are in compliance with all federal, state and local environmental regulations, she has led Business Resource Groups with over 200 members, and currently supports STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts & Mathematics) by mentoring middle school students. She serves as an Engineering Representative to help write a STEAM curriculum to serve as a guide for educators to help generate student interest at the middle school level.

Valorie relocated to Santa Clarita, CA in 2018 and became active in several causes and organizations. She joined the Talladega College Alumni Association, Los Angeles Chapter where she serves as Vice-President and served on the National Alumni Association By-Laws Committee and Nominating Committee. She is also a member of the Inter Alumni Council of UNCF - Los Angeles, NAACP Santa Clarita Chapter, Network of Executive Women National Organization which is now known as NextUp where she served as the Southern California Regional Finance Manager, Zonta International, Women in Mining where she serves as Junior National Representative for the state of California, Jack and Jill of America, Inc Santa Clarita/Antelope Valley Chapter where she served as Chapter Treasurer and her son Dylan served as the Far West Regional Teen President and she is a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She is an active member of Valencia Christian Center where she serves as Committee Chair for the Scholarship Committee and Worship Leader. She is excited and honored to serve on the Morehouse College Parent Council as a Regional Representative.

Valorie is a huge sports fan so during her down time you will find her at one of the LA sports areas enjoying a game.
